PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Mike Jones

Summer is here which means it is time to think of skiing. Our trips committee has been working hard and we now have a trips schedule out. As of this time we are still getting bids back so no price is listed for our trips except Vail. By June 15 we should have all prices listed so you can make decisions where you want to go by the time of our Picnic. The only exception is the Vail trip where you can put deposit down now. Due to limited seating on some flights, we expect some trips to sell out fast.

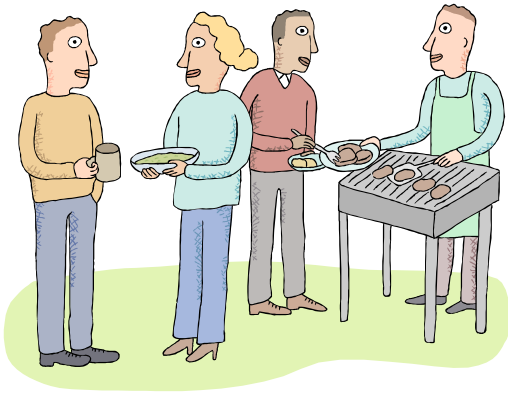

With changes in airlines, it is taking longer this year in getting prices back on trips, especially flying into regional airports. All clubs are experiencing the same situation. We hope in the future that things will change so that we can let you know about ski trips sooner.

In May, the Blue Ridge Ski Council has decided for 2015 that their Winter Carnival will be held at Mt. Bachelor, Oregon and 2016 at Snowbird, Utah. For 2017, they are looking at Whistler/ Blackcomb, Canada as the Blue Ridge site. We will be planning our future trips with these in mind. I will be the Blue Ridge coordinator for the Mt. Bachelor trip and will be going this fall to Bend, Oregon to check out accommodations for the Blue Ridge Council.

While skiing is 6 months away, we hope that you will join us this summer for some events that are coming up. Look in our newsletter, our website and sign up for Constant contact to get the latest news about our club. If you would like to host a summer event, contact Christopher Pukalski and let him know what you would like to do.

I am excited about our ski trips for this coming year. If I have any additional information, I will be happy to share it with you at Padonia Station. Mike

Billionaire owner of Sinclair Oil, Sun Valley dies

April 21, 2013 6:37 PM ET

By MARTIN GRIFFITH

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) - Billionaire Robert Earl Holding, whose business empire included ownership of Sinclair Oil and two world-class ski resorts in the West, has died. He was 86.

Holding died Friday in Salt Lake City after suffering lingering complications of a 2002 stroke, Clint Ensign, senior vice president of the Sinclair Companies, said Sunday. Holding actively oversaw his businesses until he slowed down a couple of years ago, Ensign said.

The Utah native's estimated net worth of $3.2 billion made him the 423rd wealthiest person in the world at the time of his death, according to Forbes.

Not bad for a man who did not invest in stocks after his parents lost everything in the 1929 stock market crash when he was just 3. Holding also worked full time by the time he reached high school and only went to high school half-time as a result.

"He was a lion of a man," Ensign told The Associated Press. "He was the All-American success story, someone who came from humble beginnings and through hard work and good management created some wonderful businesses. He truly was one of the great entrepreneurs of the West."

Holding first tasted success after becoming manager of the struggling Little America truck stop and hotel near Green River, Wyo., in 1952. After revitalizing the business and becoming its owner, he opened other Little Americas in Cheyenne, Wyo., Flagstaff, Ariz., and Salt Lake City.

But Holding's boldest moves came when he acquired a Mobil refinery in Casper, Wyo., in 1968 and Sinclair Oil in 1976. Sinclair Oil, based in Salt Lake City, now has 2,700 independently-owned stations in 22 states in the West and Midwest. The company also operates two major refineries in Wyoming.

Holding later purchased the Sun Valley Resort in Idaho and Snowbasin Resort in Utah, as well as sprawling ranches in Wyoming and Montana. He owned 400,000 acres in 2010, making him the 19th greatest land holder in the U.S., according to BusinessInsider.com.

"I think his timing (for acquisitions) was very good," Ensign said. "He saw value when others didn't. He had wonderful vision ... and a very hands-on management style."

When Holding bought Sun Valley in central Idaho in 1977, he faced skepticism among locals about what he planned to do with the famous resort. But he never sold it, and instead poured in money to refurbish Sun Valley Lodge and Sun Valley Inn to make it a modern destination that continues to draw world travelers.

"I think we are very lucky Mr. Holding owned Sun Valley," resort spokesman Jack Sibbach said. "One thing he had was a love for the place. He looked at the long term. He improved on it all the way through his ownership."

Holding also was a member of the Salt Lake Organizing Committee board that lured the 2002 Winter Games to Salt Lake City. He helped secure the Olympic bid by building the upscale Grand America Hotel in Salt Lake City and by turning Snowbasin into a top venue able to host downhill skiing competitions.

"Earl was an incredible builder," former Salt Lake City Mayor Rocky Anderson told The Salt Lake Tribune. "He had huge dreams and seemed to turn them all into reality."

But Holding's career was not without controversy as he was bounced from the organizing committee board in the wake of the Olympic bribery scandal of the 1990s.

He drew attention after his private jets were used to fly some International Olympic Committee members who took excessive gifts from Salt Lake's bid committee before the games were awarded in 1995.

He also was criticized by environmentalists over a land swap involving U.S. Forest Service land at Snowbasin.

2014 BLUE RIDGE SKI COUNCIL TRIP To: VAIL, COLORADO

Deposits for this trip only will be accepted beginning May 1, 2013; however, the check must be dated JUNE 1, 2013 or later. WHY you ask? We need to gauge member interest and if it appears to be lacking then we need to release some spots to avoid harsh penalties by the end of June and again in September. Dating the check June 1 or after is to keep 2014 funds off the 2013 fiscal year accounts. Spots will be reserved in the order checks are received. All checks will be held and deposited after June 1st. Staying at the Exclusive Vail Cascades Resort & Spa. www.vailcascades.com

DUCKPIN BOWLING

The BSC gathered for another night of duckpin bowling on Saturday, April 27. Due to the demise of Hillendale Lanes the venue was moved to Parkville Lanes, just down the road from the Parkville VFW where the ski club meetings were held until recently. There were over 30 people in attendance, almost all of whom bowled. We had a mix of old and new BSC members, spouses, significant others, and friends of friends. They were joined by an enthusiastic group of BSC regulars.

Brian, one of the owners of the Parkville Lanes, greeted our change of venue by giving us eight lanes on which to bowl. This led to the situation where the average number of bowlers per lane was less than four, which meant that a lot of bowling could be squeezed into our 6-9 PM timeframe. Almost everyone quit bowling before nine, having had more than their share of fun. All of this for only $11.00! Max Cohen, Jan Serwint, and Linda Alexander each baked cookies that were available for all to munch on as the evening went along. Thanks, guys!

We welcomed club members Brian Greenlee and his wife Sarah for the first time. Another first-timer was Elizabeth Tolbert, who first skied with the club at Squaw two years ago. The Jones family was all present with Mark & Sharon, Mike & Gloria, and sister Darla attending. The Oppenheimer clan was also well represented. Max, Myron, son Cory, his wife Julie, and their friend Tim were all there. Tim had the high game for the evening, bowling a 125. Myron, however, was the most consistent bowler, breaking 100 in all four of his games. Others breaking the century mark were Brian Greenlee, Parker Hallam, Anne Spooner, Janny Serwint, and Mark Jones.

More typical of the bowlers present, however, were Mal, Bill Shewchuk, and Beth Muscedere and many of the others who managed to have average games in the seventies, eighties, and nineties. It doesn't matter how many pins you knock down. We keep score just for bragging rights. What's important is getting to know some of the other members in the BSC a little better and the fun you have sharing an evening with your ski buddies.

Why don't you join us next time? For a minimal cost you can spend an evening with your fellow skiers or meet some new people and have a good time. There were a lot of requests from those present for another night of duckpin bowling. Watch the SCHUSS for details of our next outing. Also, watch the SCHUSS for upcoming events because there's a lot more than bowling to choose from. Think snow!

The sun is sitting high in the sky, the days are longer and you've traded your ski pants in for shorts, we have done the same.

If you are like us, you know a little adventure is a great way to enjoy that fun in the sun. One of the ways we like to spend the day is bouncing & splashing down a rocking river. If you've been WHITE WATER RAFTING in the past you know what we are talking about. If you have never done it, it is an adventure that you need to cross off that bucket list.

This year Banchi is reserving space on the Lehigh River on June 22. It's a scheduled dam release trip and we want to provide the best time to ride action for the day's biggest adventure. The trip we are offering is a U-drive package and starts at $70 per person. Details can be found by clicking here. We also offer additional Lehigh river trips throughout the year for your small groups or family.

Follow Banchi Outdoors on Facebook for all your Banchi Summer and Winter updates.

We will also be offering a fall rafting trip to the Hudson River in the breath-taking Adirondacks on October 4-6. Warm air, cool water and the majestic Adirondack State Park make for a weekend of memories. We offer lodging in either condos or camping, depending on your tastes. Lodging options and details can be found here; early-bird rates are available with a $100 deposit now. We also offer additional Hudson River trips throughout the year for your small group.

Of course if the dates we have reserved don't work, just call us and we can get you a package anytime.

If winter is not too far from your mind, we cannot blame you one bit. If you are part of a club or are a trip/group leader give us a call to start planning for the 2013-14 season. We also have posted our 2013-2014 "open bus" schedule. Ten fantastic trips to ski, ride, party and carve up the mountain.

It's never too early to plan your adventures. Give us a call today and get yours.

Thanks and think fun!

Summer VOLLEYBALL!

Come join the ski club on Wednesday nights this summer at Oregon Ridge Park. It's a great way to keep those ski legs in shape! We start around 6:45 and play until dark. It's coed and no experience is necessary. Our court is set up on the lawn, so wear a sturdy pair of tennis shoes. First night will be May 8. Come and join the ski club's longest continuously running activity (other than skiing!).

Directions: Beltway to I-83 north to Shawan road (Hunt Valley). Take westbound exit (2nd ramp). Turn left at first traffic light (Beaver Dam road/ Cuba road). Stay left on Beaver Dam road approx ¼ mile to park entrance on right.

Baltimore Ski Club presents: Wales to Scotland September 20-29, 2013

Discover the best of Wales and Scotland with this packed ten-day tour exploring famous sites along the way. In addition to the sites we will visit as a group, there is plenty of time to shop for crafts and local goods, visit pubs and if you like learn about their Scottish whiskies in their whiskey tasting centers.

The rugged Welsh coast calls us to the magnificent 1,000 year old castle towns of Conwy and Caernarfon.

On the historic Albert docks in Liverpool we will visit the widely acclaimed multi-media Beatles Experience. In York, after a visit to the world renowned stained glass windows of the York Minster, we will have time to explore the city wall walks of the ancient city and take in all its museums. We just stop by Betty's for our famous chocolate cream and scone.

The next 4 days Edinburgh will be the base of operations as we take a city tour, travel to Stirling Castle, cruise Loch Lomond, and visit Glasgow for the day.

All this in the comfort of a dedicated Hosted private coach, just for us. You will fly home on Sunday from Edinburgh to BWI.
