Tai Chi & Skiing

Did you know that Ted Ligety, Alpine Ski Racer and two-time Olympic Gold Medalist, may owe some of his World Cup success to Tai Chi?

Tai Chi is a moving meditation derived from ancient Chinese martial art, like a form of dancing in slow motion.

Tai Chi can improve your skiing ability through coordination and balance of weight transfer from foot to foot to do effortless parallel turns.

Our guest speaker, Jeff Zukor, will demonstrate some basic Tai Chi gentle movements that can alleviate stiffness through gentle stretching, continuous movement, and deep breathing. Jeff is a senior instructor at U.S. Martial Arts Academy Ltd in Timonium and has a third degree black sash.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Mike Jones

I hope everyone had very happy holidays. Now that they are over, it's time to think about skiing. Thankfully, storms this year are bringing much needed snow to the US western resorts. Not only is that good for winter sports, but the added snowpack is needed to reduce the drought several of these areas are experiencing. Whether you believe that global warming is occurring or that the warmer temperatures are part of a natural climatic cycle, the drought is very real.

Many of the ski resorts have been open since Thanksgiving. Although I know some of our members have already taken advantage of early season skiing, for various reasons most of our members do not start skiing until after the winter holidays. Since we try to accommodate what the majority of members want, our trips are planned to begin in January and continue until the end of March. If you can afford the vacation time or are retired as I am, I hope you can take advantage of this extended season by going on more than one trip. Although most western trips are sold out, there is still space available on the eastern trips. I'm using Canaan Valley as a "warm up" trip. It's a chance to get my skiing muscles tuned up before I go out west. Even though I'm back in the gym, nothing targets your ski muscles like actually skiing. Give it some thought and contact the leaders of Canaan Valley, Sugarloaf, or Gore (that's me!) and they will get you on board.

With our first snow-fall tonight, let's not forget to support our local resorts. Through Constant Contact we will notify you if we hear of some impromptu ski trips for these resorts. Be sure to get on our list.

Last month I asked for someone to volunteer for the position of corresponding secretary. I like to say that I've been flooded with responses. I like to say it, but I can't. The position is still open if anyone is willing to help.

Although I had a setback in December, I am recovering and getting into shape so I can ski later this month. Hope to see many of you either at our general meeting or out on the slopes. Ski or snowboard safely this year and don't forget to wear your helmet. Mike

BSC Trips Cancellation Policy

1. The Club does not intend to unduly penalize a trip participant who cancels from a BSC trip. However, other trip participants should not have to incur additional costs due to your cancellation.
2. Deposits and payments made toward the trip reservations being cancelled will be held until such time as a determination can be made that the Club or trip participants will not incur additional costs due to non-recoverable costs.
3. Non-recoverable costs are defined as those that are associated with the trip that due to contractual obligations cannot be recovered when the individual cancels his/her trip. Non-recoverable also include those costs associated with replacing a person or persons on a trip (i.e., name change charges on airline tickets, etc.) Refunds, if any, will be made based on the non-recoverable involved plus a cancellation fee. Cancellation costs will not exceed the cost of the trip. Club cancellation fee will be dropped if non-recoverable costs exceed 50% of the trip cost.
4. Replacement of a trip participant by a trip participant is strictly prohibited. Only the Trip Leader or Assistant Trip Leader can replace a trip participant who is unable to go on the trip. The canceling trip participant may suggest a replacement candidate to the trip leader or assistant trip leader, however the canceling trip participant is responsible for the cancellation fee (if applicable) and any non-recoverable costs.
5. Be sure to know the cancellation dates in relation to the trip you select so that you can avoid monetary losses. The following cancellation policy is in effect in relation to BSC trips. NR=Non-recoverable costs
